

GRADE: 1

Name of the Student _____

Nouns-Singular & Plural

To change the nouns from singular to plural we normally add 's' at the end of the word.

Exercise 1:

One book two _____

One chair three _____

One bag six _____

One boat many _____

One phone many _____

One shirt many _____

Nouns that end with s, ss, sh, ch and x can be made plural by adding 'es'.

Exercise 2:

gas _____

class _____

bush _____

match _____

box _____

Nouns that end with the letter y, can be made plural by changing y to 'ies' to make it plural.

Exercise 3:

lady	_____
berry	_____
baby	_____
candy	_____
lorry	_____

When the noun has a vowel (a, e, i, o, u) before the end letter y, then just add s to it to make it plural.

Exercise 4:

boy	_____
ray	_____
tray	_____
key	_____
trolley	_____

When a noun ends with o, then es is added to it to make it plural.

Exercise 5:

potato _____

tomato _____

buffalo _____

mango _____

hero _____

When a noun ends with f or fe, then f or fe is changed into v and es is added.

Exercise 6:

leaf _____

half _____

calf _____

knife _____

wife _____

There are some nouns that end with f or fe, but we only add s to make it plural.

Exercise 7:

chief _____

roof _____

chef _____

giraffe _____

cliff _____

There are a few nouns which form their plurals by changing the inside vowel to make them plural.

Exercise 8:

tooth _____

goose _____

mouse _____

man _____

woman _____

Few nouns take en at the end to form its plural.

Exercise 9:

ox _____

child _____

Some nouns remain the same in their plural form.

Exercise 10:

sheep _____

deer _____

corn _____

gold _____

Underline the correct form of the plural noun

Exercise 11:

1. My mom gave me two big (potato, potatoes) in my lunch box.
2. The (woman, women) was standing at the bus stop.
3. Ron's uncle has two (buffalo, buffaloes) in his farm.
4. The three (thief, thieves) were caught by the policeman.