Name of the Student _____

Strawberries

*Strawberries that in garden grow
Are plump and juicy fine,
But sweeter far as wise men know,
Spring from the woodland vine.*

*No need for bowl or silver spoon,
Sugar or spice or cream,
Has the wild berry plucked in June
Beside the trickling stream.*

Meanings:

plump – fat and fleshy.

spring from – come from or arise from or to grow.

woodland - forests

vine – stem of a creeping plant.

bowl – a round, deep vessel spice – parts of plants that add flavor or aroma to the food.

plucked – pulled out trickling – flowing slowly, in very small amounts.

Summary

The poet says that the strawberries that grow in the garden and farms are very plump i.e. fat and juicy. He finds the taste of these strawberries to be fine, means they are okay in taste, not so great. But the poet say that all the wise men i.e. men who are knowledgeable, who have a lot of experience, know that the strawberries that grow wild in the woodland (forest) are much sweeter.

The poet further states that there is no need for a bowl or any silver spoon i.e. any expensive or fancy spoon to have these strawberries. Nor do you require any sugar or spice or cream to eat these strawberries that have been plucked from the vines growing besides a flowing stream in the month of June.

Thinks to do:

1. Learn and recite the poem.

2. Read the poem and answer the following.

(1) Which are the two different places where strawberries grow?

Ans. Strawberries grow in the garden and they also grow wild in the woodland besides the tricking stream.

(2) What are the two different ways of eating strawberries?

Ans. Strawberries can be eaten directly by plucking them from the vines or put in a bowl with sugar, spice and cream and eaten with a silver spoon.

(Students should write in their own words)

3. Activities

(1) Find out when and where we get strawberries in Maharashtra.

Ans. In Maharashtra strawberries are grown in Mahableshwar in the winter months from November to February.

(2) Make a list of your favourite fruits and vegetables and note down the time of the year when they are available in plenty.

List of fruits / vegetables	Month when they are available
Mango	Summer months
Watermelon	Summer months
Oranges	Winter months
Guava	Winter months
Green peas	Winter months
Bhindi (okra)	Throughout the year
Corn	Summer months

(3) Have you ever eaten any fruit/vegetable picking it straight from the tree or field? Write about that experience in 3-5 lines.

Ans. Last year, I visited my uncle's house in Ratnagiri in the month of April. My uncle who has a grove of Mango trees took my cousins and me, there. The trees were laden with ripe alphonso mangoes. My uncle told us everything about mango farming and allowed us to pick some. We ate them directly, biting into the fruit - without even cutting it. The mangoes were very juicy and tasty.
